Re: Lyons v. Amazon.com, Inc., 1:21-cv-03785-LGS
Letter Requesting Adjournment of September 10, 2021 Settlement Conference and to Appear Telephonically

Dear Judge Lehrburger:

This firm is counsel to Defendant Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”) in the above-referenced action. We write pursuant to Your Honor’s Settlement Conference and Mediation Procedures to request that the Court adjourn the settlement conference scheduled for September 10, 2021 and for Amazon’s decision-making representative, Scott Sanford, to appear telephonically on the date of the rescheduled conference.

Amazon requests the adjournment of the conference because there was an internal miscommunication and Mr. Sanford is unfortunately unavailable on September 10, 2021 to attend the conference. Plaintiff has consented to this adjournment and both parties are available on the mornings of either September 13 or September 15, 2021. We are, of course, amenable to appear on other dates as the Court so orders.

With respect to Amazon’s request for Mr. Sanford to appear telephonically, Mr. Sanford resides in Seattle, Washington. Like Ms. Lyons, Mr. Sanford would have to travel five-plus hours by plane to attend the settlement conference in person, and in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and the rise of the Delta variant, Mr. Sanford is concerned that cross-country travel could put his health at risk. The undersigned will attend the settlement conference in person. Mr. Sanford will be available and will participate in the entirety of the settlement conference telephonically if the Court so permits.
